

A Branch of Webber International University

Physical Education Program of Study

Preferred order of classes

Section A: Professional Studies (Section A courses must be completed before moving forward to Section B)

EDU 220: Child & Adolescent Development
EDU 232: Integrating Movement in the Classroom
EDU 236: Technology for Educators
EDU 240: Math for Teaching & Learning
EDU 250: Education, Culture & Diversity
EDU 310: Curriculum & Instruction
EDU 311: Digital Learning Applications
EDU 324: Educational Psychology
EDU 355: Introduction to the Exceptional Child

Must have passed the Praxis Core Academic Skills for Educators by the end of this section with a composite score of 468

Section B: Pedagogical Studies (program majors must have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 courses, pass Physical Education Praxis II test before moving forward to section C.)

EDU 322 Reading & Writing in the Content Area
HPE 328 K-12 – PE Methods
HPE 370 K-12 Health Methods
HPE 315 Skill Analysis – Individual Sports Methods
HPE 316 Skill Analysis – Team Sports Methods
SS 231 Foundations & Principles of PE & Sport
HPE 334 Adapted PE
SS 235 Kinesiology & Biomechanics
HPE 402 Exercise Physiology
SS 410 Org. & Admin of PE & Sport
BIO 221 Human Anatomy & Physiology (counts as Gen Ed Science/Lab – 4 credits)
EDU 352: Teachers as Leaders
EDU 344: Classroom Management

Section C: Professional Semester: (Sections A & B courses must be completed before moving to Section C.) Student teachers will submit their nationally assessed electronic portfolio, edTPA, during this semester.

EDU 423: Student Teaching
EDU 425: Student Teaching Senior Seminar

Must have passed the edTPA and the Praxis II – Physical Education for licensure documents to be submitted to the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction.